Our Families

Families at Home

Our family is made up of the people we love. Families take care of each other and have fun together.

Some families are big. Some families are small. Families come in many shapes and sizes.

What is a family?

Places

Amusement Park

David goes on a ride with his brother and grandma. They have fun riding the roller coaster together!

Families Help Each Other

Jake lives with his dad and aunt. They each have work to do. Jake vacuums the living room rug. His dad cooks dinner. His aunt washes the dishes.

Families follow rules. Rules tell us what we can and cannot do. One rule in Jake's family is to wash your hands before eating.

What is one rule in Jake's family?

Check Understanding

- 1. Vocabulary What are rules?
- 2. Retell How do the people in Jake's family help each other?
- 3. The Big Idea How can families have fun together?

Use Addresses

Vocabulary

address

Every home has an address.
The first part is a number.
The second part is a street name. Hector lives at 4 Pine Street.

Mia lives in the red house. The red house is next to Hector's house.

Try the Skill

1. What parts make up an address?
2. What is Mia's address?

Writing Activity

Draw where you live. Write the number by the door. Write your address below the picture.

Families Have Customs

Every year after the family picnic, Ashley's grandma opens a sewing box. Together, the family adds a new patch to their family quilt. This is a custom in Ashley's family. A custom is a special way of doing something.

What is a custom?

Event

Moving the Sheep

Marie's family has a special custom. Every September they help Mr. Banks move his sheep to greener pastures. Then they celebrate. They eat, sing songs, and dance.

Families Celebrate

It is a custom in many families to celebrate birthdays. Celebrate means to show happiness about a thing or event.

Ryan's family has a special custom. Each spring, they go together to the Seneca Zoo in Rochester, New York.

They celebrate the birth of the new baby animals. This year, Ryan's family celebrated the birth of two baby tigers!

What is Ryan's family custom?

Check Understanding

- Vocabulary What does the word celebrate mean?
- Retell What is Ryan's family custom?
-  What customs do you have in your family?

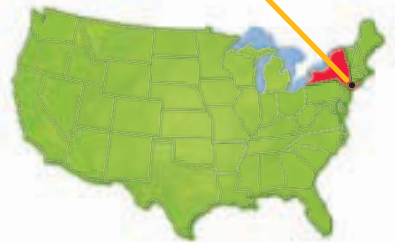

Citizenship

Points of View

How does your family celebrate?

These first graders are from Jericho, New York. Read about how they celebrate birthdays.

Jericho, New York

“My family sings ‘Happy Birthday’ in Hebrew and in English. My grandma makes a special cake that has no flour in it because my birthday is at Passover. We can’t eat bread then.”

Benjamin Alon

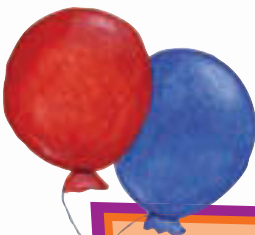

Benjamin Alon

"On my birthday my friends come over and I wear my special Chinese red gown.
I play with my friends. We also eat Chinese candy."

Nadine Wang
Nadine Wang

"We eat a fried sweet from
Nigeria called chin-chin.
We eat ice cream and pizza, too. The most fun part is I open presents."

Our School

What Is School?

School can be a wonderful place.
In school we learn to read and write.
We find out about numbers and far away places.

Together, we learn to play new games. We learn to get along with each other. We make new friends!

What can you do in school?

Rules at School

In school we follow rules, just like at home. One school rule is to stay to the right when you walk down the hallway. This rule keeps us from bumping into one another.

We need rules in the classroom, too. One classroom rule is to raise your hand when you want to speak. This rule gives everyone in class a turn to speak and be heard.

What is a rule in your classroom?

A Class Celebration

Ben's class celebrates many cultures. Culture means the special food, music, and art of a group of people.

This calendar shows when Ben's class will have Culture Day. A calendar is a chart that shows the months, weeks, and days of a year.

On Culture Day, children tell about their family's culture. They play games from around the world. They sing songs in different languages.

What does a calendar show?

Check Understanding

1. Vocabulary What is culture?

2. Retell Tell what Ben's class does to celebrate different cultures.

3.  What can we learn at school?

Our Neighbors

In a Neighborhood

People who live near each other are called neighbors. They live together in a neighborhood.

Neighbors can share food from their gardens. They can help each other keep their neighborhood clean.

How can neighbors help?

People

Jane Addams

Jane Addams opened her house to neighbors who needed help. She called it Hull-House. She said, "All the people in the world are neighbors."

mancala

New Neighbors

Lisa has a new neighbor named Chanya. Chanya's family came from East Africa. They moved into the house next door to Lisa.

Chanya taught Lisa a game called mancala. It is an African game played with small beads.

Lisa invited Chanya to join her brownie troop. They also sing together in the school choir. Lisa is happy to have her new neighbor!

Many Cultures

We may wear different clothes. We may speak different languages. But, the words "Hello, my friend," are spoken in every language!

Around the World

This child lives in Australia. In Australia they have a special custom. First, they paint their bodies. Then, they dance and tell a family story.

Our families, neighborhoods, and schools are made up of people from all over the world. We came from many different cultures.

How are we alike and different?

Characters

Tina

Matt

Hala

Angelo

Narrator Tina, Matt, and Hala are friends. There is a block party in their neighborhood today. They meet to have fun together. Angelo is new in the neighborhood. His family just moved here from Italy.

Tina Hi, Matt. Have a hot dog!

Hala Hi, pals! Let's play Four Square!

Tina Four Square? But we need four players. Maybe we can find somebody to play.

Matt Hey, isn't that the new boy?
Maybe he would play with us.

Hala I don't know. We don't even know him.

Matt So what? Let's ask him to play.
Hi, my name is Matt. What is yours?

Angelo My name is Angelo.

Matt Angelo, these are my friends
Hala and Tina.

Tina Hi, Angelo. Do you want to play Four Square with us?

Angelo Sure! But I do not know how to play.

Tina Do not worry. We can show you!

Narrator Angelo and his new friends play Four Square all afternoon.

Hala Now I am hungry again!

Tina All of the good food is gone!

Angelo I have an idea! I'll be right back.

Narrator Angelo goes into his apartment. Soon he comes out holding a plate.

Hala Yum! Those look good! What are they?

Angelo They are called strufoli. My mom made them for the block party.

Hala They are great! Can I have more?

Angelo Sure. My mom made enough for everyone.

Narrator Hala, Tina, and Matt are so happy to have their new friend, Angelo. The block party ends too soon for all of them.

Tina I have to go home now. School is tomorrow.

Matt Thanks for playing with us, Angelo.

Angelo Thanks for showing me how to play Four Square! I'll see you in school tomorrow.

Hala Okay. Could you try to bring us more of that yummy strufoli?
(laughing)

Readers Theater Activity

How did Tina, Matt, and Hala help Angelo feel welcome? What could you do to make a new child feel welcome? First, draw a picture of your idea. Then, act it out.
